

GRATITUDE

(It Will Be Done According to Your Thought)

Gratitude gives birth to gratitude and ingratitude creates more ingratitude. This is because gratitude reaches God, while ingratitude reaches dark forces.

Therein lies the reason why those who are always grateful naturally enjoy happiness and good fortune, while those who are ungrateful and constantly complain are unhappy and become more and more unfortunate.

As one prominent spiritual leader in Japan wrote, "If you rejoice, joyous things will come to you."
